INTRODUCTORY.

We take pleasure in presenting to the public our first volume of the MADISON CITY DIRECTORY, trusting in its merits to win the favor of our patrons.

Although it was apparent from the commencement of our labors, that, owing to the former worthless productions which had been palmed off upon the citizens as Directories, we would find it difficult to make a Directory pay, yet we felt that a thorough and well gotten up work would be appreciated and supported in a city with so much enterprise, and having such business facilities as Madison, and we think we are not mistaken.

Nothing gives a city a greater reputation abroad, as well as at home, than a handsomely printed and well bound Directory, with the business, inhabitants, public institutions, societies, etc., etc., well arranged and concisely set forth. All large cities understand this, and the utmost care is taken, regardless of expense, to have their city represented accordingly.

That everything has been done that experience could suggest to present such a work as the city would be proud of, we think the book itself will show. Having more than double the number of names contained in any previous work, with a classified Business Directory, alphabetically arranged; a full list of city officers, societies, churches, etc., printed on heavy paper, with new type, and bound in a handsome and substantial manner, we feel assured it will be appreciated by the public generally.

With many thanks to those who have assisted us in our arduous duties, and especially to the Madison press for their encouragement, as well as to our advertisers and patrons,

We subscribe ourselves, yours truly,

JOHN A. CHILD, GENERAL FIRE, MARINE, INLAND & LIFE INSURANCE AGENT.

Knowing that every Merchant, Farmer, Laborer and Citizen are interested in having their property insured in safe and reliable Companies that comply with the laws of all States, I have secured the agency of the following staunch Companies:

PHŒNIX, OF HARTFORD,

Cash Capital, $1,006,790.33.

Underwriters' Agency, of New York,

Cash Capital, 3,000,000.

INTERNATIONAL, OF NEW YORK,

Cash Capital, $1,000,000.

UNION INS. CO., OF INDIANAPOLIS,

Cash Assets, $400,000.

Northwestern Life Insurance Co. of Wisconsin,

Each of which can be relied upon for any amount insured for; and, as insurance is a positive business necessity, I would respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. Policies issued on shortest notice and losses promptly adjusted.
